

Greetings, Trade Partners,

Summer is here, and we're excited to once again carry our passengers to their destinations with Condor.

In this month's newsletter, we will highlight our new destination Panama, and options to fly beyond with our partner, Copa Airlines. We give the updates on our 2025/26 winter schedule and inform you about our new fare structure and advantages for school groups. Finally, we share some additional information on the Thailand Digital Arrival Card.

Best regards,

Your Condor Team

The Versatility of Panama

Fly with us to Panama this summer. We operate two flights a week.

On Sunday and Wednesday, departing Frankfurt at 21:50 and arriving the next day in Panama City at 02:40 local time.

The return flights are on Monday and Thursday and will leave Panama City at 11:05 and arrive at Frankfurt at 05:15 local time the same day.

Panama City is a growing financial and logistics hub, blending a striking modern skyline with the historic charm of Casco Viejo. Beyond business opportunities, Panama is filled with unspoiled nature, from pearl-white beaches on its many islands to the deep and dense rainforests. Panama is still quite under the radar, which makes this destination more authentic than some other popular countries in Latin America.

Copa Airlines

Travel beyond Panama City with our interline partner airline, Copa Airlines!

Copa Airlines is a full-service premium carrier, recognized as one of the most punctual airlines in Latin America. With a modern fleet of over 90 aircraft and an award-winning service, Copa connects travelers to more than 80 destinations across 32 countries through its hub in Panama City.

Winter Schedule 2025/26 updates

For winter 2025/26, we are expanding our long-haul network from Frankfurt (FRA):

- Daily flights to Bangkok (BKK), Phuket (HKT), and Cape Town (CPT)
- Three weekly flights to Johannesburg (JNB) on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
- The new route to Panama City (PTY) continues with two weekly flights, but the Wednesday flight to PTY will be moved to Thursday.

With these adjustments to the winter flight schedule, we are responding to the high demand and the popularity of the destinations among our guests.
